RUPUNUNI MUSIC & ARTS FESTIVAL THEATRE GUILD, GEORGETOWN NOVEMBER 22-23, 2019

A weekend of Guyanese and other world cultures on your doorstep! Music, spoken word, dance and local arts & craft as Guyana welcomes friends from around the Caribbean and the UK to join together to celebrate the beauty of life through the arts.

The hilarious Chow Pow brings order to Friday night's celebratory evening and Vanilla, Herbie Marshall, Jaime 'Suru' Mayers, Gavin & Chucky, The Mighty Pakuri, Ol' Man Papi and Janey Gal, Trevaun Selman, Sherry Anna Balkaran, Young Bill Rogers join forces with artistes from the UK/Ukraine (Russian/Eastern European), David Frank (funky violinist from Trinidad & Tobago) and MAYA (soulful jazz and Surinamese) to set the tempo for the weekend.

Saturday kicks off with workshops from 2.00 pm - arts & crafts, face painting, guitar master class, Indian dance and St. Stanislaus scouts all waiting to share the diversity of Guyana's rich cultures with you. The evening brings together international and local artistes and include Semi (reggae quartet from St. Lucia), Iryna Muha and Rob Rosa (folk and funk from Eastern Europe), Kairi Kaiso ('old time' calypso, T & T), MAYA (jazz vibes from Suriname), Alex (Spanish acoustic guitar from Cuba) and a dynamic range of local entertainers including Ras Camo on pan, Gavin and Chucky (Folk), Josie (acoustic pop), Buxton Fusion (African drumming), Calibro Band (Indigenous + Forró), Ovid Williams (Indigenous Story Telling), A-TayJah (Creole Rap) and Riverside Angels (Indigenous Dance). DJ Selector Shaw will keep you engaged all weekend.

PLEASE SPREAD THE WORD, BRING FAMILY AND FRIENDS, JOIN US
