THE UNIVERSITY OF GUYANA (UG) &
THE RUPUNUNI MUSIC & ARTS FESTIVAL (RM&AF) sign MOU

June 2022

We are delighted to share that The Rupununi Music & Arts Festival (Guyana) and The University of Guyana, (Co-operative Republic of Guyana) have now established co-operative relations between the two institutions, especially to develop areas in support of UG Artist in Residence Programme. The MOU also covers training and production links/collaboration and cultural interchange between the two institutions through mutual assistance in the areas of education, research, artistic and cultural production, capacity building, internships and others.

In broad terms, the areas of cooperation include, subject to mutual consent, facilities available and needs at both institutions as felt desirable and feasible on either side, or that both sides contribute to fostering and development of the cooperative relationships between the two institutions. Areas of collaboration will include:

- Reciprocal Education and Training
- Professional Development
- Discounted Facilities Sharing
- Joint of collaborative productions
- Joint research or projects in of mutual areas of interest
- Collaborative grant seeking and financing of cultural matters
- Internships and Practicum Opportunities and Placements
- Any other items not foreseen and listed here but which may arise, and which may mutually be considered relevant under this MOU

This MOU will be operational for the next five (5) years and both parties look forward to a productive and mutually beneficial working relationship.
